

Crawl Along West 7th Street!

Saint Paul Art Crawl - Saturday, April 26, 12 to 6pm

Join us during Spring Saint Paul Art Crawl and experience the art and artists living and working in the West 7th Street and Little Bohemia Neighborhoods! Featuring open houses, exhibits at neighborhood galleries, plus art and live music at Claddagh Coffee & Cafe. Continue on to the Schmidt Artist Lofts for more Art Crawl on West 7th.

Open Houses

These artists open their homes and studios for Art Crawlers to explore.

1 Michael and Deborah Padgett

274 Goodrich Avenue

Padgett Studios features a workshop/studio separate from their two-story house. Deborah operates her painting and drawing studio on the top floor of this building and Michael operates his ceramics studio on the ground floor. The first floor of their home serves as a gallery for larger exhibitions and gatherings.

2 Marty Hicks

2223 Stewart Avenue

Marty Hicks is a metalworker, sculptor, and designer whose work ranges from welding, to artist blacksmithing and bronze casting. Examples of his work can be seen online at hixwerx.com or visit HIXWERX on FaceBook.

Metro Transit offers free service during the Saint Paul Art Crawl!

Ride the 74, 54 or 70 to West 7th St destinations. Go to metrotransit.org for more information!

Gallery Exhibits

Stop by these neighborhood galleries and explore the work of West 7th Street Artists

3 Saint Paul Gallery

943 West 7th Street

Present new work from Aldo Moroni. He will be on hand to welcome spring with a beautiful water garden created in the gallery's display window and present new sconces. These are glazed ceramic wall lights that feature his imaginary worlds.

4 Schmidt Artist's Lofts (Showing April 25-27!)

882 West 7th Street

Schmidt Artist Lofts are the newest art community in the Twin Cities. The Schmidt Brewery buildings are icons in the city that have been converted into beautiful living spaces for artists. We have 18 artists that will be showing in our first Saint Paul Art Crawl.

5 Scarborough Fair

961 West 7th Street

Twin Cities artist Ruth Cain's watercolors are on display during Art Crawl. Ruth always loved painting and drawing but began her love affair with watercolors in 2001 and has traveled to many exotic locals to paint.
